Venice, October 12.

PRince Radzeville the Polish Ambassador is now at Treviso; and after having performed a Quarantine there, will come hither, and make the same Propositions to the Senate, he did to the Emperor; and it's probable he will find the same averseness here, he did at the Imperial Court, to enter into a War against the Turks. The Duke of Hanover will be here two or three months hence; and the Senate hath sent him a Mandate of Health. The Duke of Lorrain has sent hither for several Musitians to come to Inspruck, to assist at a publick Rejoicing that will be made there for the Birth of his Son, which the Queen of Poland his Wife, was lately brought to bed of.

Prague, Octob. 18. The Turkish Chiaus that arrived lately at Vienna, was, as we are informed, sent back with an assurance, that the Emperor, will inviolably maintain on his part the friendship and good correspondence that is at present setled between the two Empires and that therefore he had declined the offers that had been made him as well by the Polish as the Moscovite Ambassadors, in order to the engaging him in a War against the Port. The Reform of the Imperial Troops goes on, according as was at first resolved, when many, who observe the proceedings of the French, as well in Alsace (which Country they have brought under their subjection) as elsewhere, are troubled at, fearing that when the Emperor is disarm'd, not only the Empire, but even his Hereditary Countries, will be exposed to great danger; and it is said that General Montecuculi, when the matter was debated, gave his opinion, that all the Troops, which the Emperor had in his service at the conclusion of the Peace, should be kept on foot, for some time at least, till the Empire were in a better posture, then now it is.

Francfort, Octob. 22. We are now confidently assured that the Marriage between the Dauphin and the Princess of Bavaria, is as good as concluded, and that it will in a short time be consummated, to the great disappointment of those, who promised themselves that the death of the last Elector would have occasioned a change in the Councils of that Court, and that the French Interest would have lost ground there. The difference at the Dyet at Ratisbonne between the Colledge of Electors, and that of the Princes, about some Formalities, is not yet composed, to the hindrance of all publick business, which is interrupted by this Controversie.

Strasburg, Octob. 20. Monsieur Vitry, who goes in quality of Envoy Extraordinary from the Most Christian King, to the Emperor, is passed through this City in his way to Prague. Our Magistrates think themselves at present so secure, that they have disbanded four Companies of this Garison. On Tuesday last a Regiment of French Horse arrived at Saverne, the next day two more, and this day and to morrow two more are expected there. It is said they are going into Winter-quarters, and that they will take them in Swaigow.

Cologne, Octob. 21. The French would oblige our Elector to buy the Magazines which they have at Nuis, and demand a very great Sum for the same, for they want Horses to take them away; but his Electoral Highness has answered that he has no need of those Magazines, and that they may remove them, or sell them to those that have more occasion than he has. The Troops of the Duke of Hanover continue to have their quarters in the Bishopriek of Hildesheim, notwithstanding all the endeavors that have been used by our Elector to remove them. The French Troops that were encamped on the Saar under the command of the Count de Busfy, are part returned for France, and the rest are gone into Winter-quarters in the Bishoprick of Metz, and in Burgundy. The King of Denmark's design against the City of Hamburg, is looked upon here to be of very great consequence, and which may give rise to a new War, if that matters be not fairly composed.

Stetin, Octob. 16. The Magistrates of this City are sending four Deputies (who will part hence to morrow) to the King of Sweden, to declare to his Majesty with how much joy and impatience they entertain the thoughts of their becoming his Subjects again, to represent to him the great miseries brought upon them by the War, and particularly by the obstinate defence of their City, and to pray that they may not only be restored to all their antient Privileges, but likewise exempted from all Duties and Taxes for a certain number of years, till their City hath in some measure recovered its former condition, and that care may be taken, that the Swedish Soldiers, which are to compose the Garison here, be not burthensome to the Inhabitants.

Berlin, Octob 21. Our Elector is now with his whole Court at Potsdam, where the Heer Groot arrived two days since, being sent by the Princes of Lunenburg, to engage his Electoral Highness to join with them in favor of the City of Hamburg; in which there is the greater likelihood of his succeeding, for that matters between his Electoral Highness and that City (which has agreed to pay the monies demanded) are accommodated.

Hamburg, Octob. 22. Yesterday the Sieur Rebenac the French Minister parted from hence, in pursuance of the Orders he had received from the King his Master, which obliged him to repair to the Danish Camp, and to offer the Mediation of the Most Christian King for the composing the present differences between the King of Denmark and this City. We doubt not but it will be effectual,
